 - Reviewed Salary Based Permit Analysis presentation from the October/November meetings to determine whether to keep current system in place or replace the current system with one of the four pricing models presented to the committee.
 - Banded | Equal Distribution
 - Banded | Set Tiers
 - Percent of Salary ($3K cap)
 - Non-subsidized reduced cost
 - The current model is a two-tiered rate structure based on location and demand & supports reduced cost permits subsidized UW-Madison & UW Health for $1.2 million per year.

- Discussion included (not limited too)
 - Resume discussion for a recommendation from the CTC from campus leadership on salary-based parking program for Fall 2024.
 - Review of the options [slides 20-26 of salary-based presentation]
 - Discussed supply & demand and lower wage earners.
 - Shaun Arneson likes the 1:4 gross % of salary for UW Hospital. Concern for low wage earners from the UW Hospital.
 - Reed Lokken made a statement [see attachment for full statement] supporting the percent of salary parking model to encourage bus usage and making parking more equitable and sustainable, by making parking pass distribution of parking rates fair and equitable for everyone.
 - Motion: Keep the two tiers for parking and then move to percent of salary with $3,000 cap made by Reed Lokken and second by Richard Carson
 - Friendly amendment consideration or prioritization for those paying higher price by Jim Tinjum.
 - Jim Tinjum withdrew his amendment
 - Vote on motion with no amendment and motion does not pass
 - Motion: made by Reed Lokken to do a study of percent salary mode with some form of prioritization and multi and differential pricing across the different lots, keeping the two tiers seconded by Jim Tinjum. 7 yes and 4 no 0 abstentions.
 - Consideration: to make a study of how one could have a salary-based pricing model combined with financial incentive to not park and use TDM options. Rephrased by Alex Frank to work over the next year, so make a study kind of like this other one of how one could have a salary-based pricing model combined with financial incentive to not use them or do not adopt them. We did not vote on this motion.
 - The recommendation from the committee is no change to the current rate structure and continue to study salary-based options.
