2. Transportation Services Reports & Updates

- Assistant Vice Chancellor Updates: Patrick Kass, Assistant Vice Chancellor
 - High demand for parking over the last couple of years, increase in demand is up 5-6%
 - 2,300 applicants on the waitlist last year
 - Under 1,400 applicants on waitlist this year; and under a 1,000 requesting annual base lots, remaining are waiting for Flex parking.
 - 20% increase in bus pass sales which includes the University and UW Health.
 - We have more park and rides available.
 - Madison Metro sent notification on interruption of services, as they are in the middle of negotiations. This caused more issues off campus than on campus.
- Permit Application Process Presentation – David Berland
 - Reviewed permit application process in its current state.
 - Proposed changes for next fall to create more efficiencies and help permit holders select a parking product that best meets their needs.
 - Determined that many permit holders are choosing location over price.
- Commuter Solutions Updates: Patrick Kass, Assistant Vice Chancellor
 - Bus Pass
 - Metro has new fare boxes and new system for counting riders, however, it is not consider official data until it certified by the Federal Transit Association Administration.
 - Ridership is up but won't have the final data until this summer.
 - Student bus pass distribution is about the same as last year
 - About 3,000 students had not picked up their bus pass
 - Looking at switching over to a system where the student doesn't have to preorder the bus pass.

- Interviews for Student Bus Pass Coordinator are next week and hoping to hire and onboard in by the end of March.
- Working on a park and ride promotions to incentivize people to use them.
- Commuter Solutions Coordinator Mary Ebeling has retired.
- Limnology bike path going out to bid next fall and construction slated for this fall. Construction must be scheduled around the research.
- Wrapped up the feasibility study for of the Lakeshore Bike Path [82-page report].
- Construction Update: Patrick Kass, Assistant Vice Chancellor
